

A free CD to listen and download

BURMA'S REVOLUTION OF THE SPIRIT

A NATION'S NONVIOLENT STRUGGLE FOR FREEDOM

by Alan Clements & Jeffrey Hellman at:

www.WorldDharma.com

Produced for World Dharma's - Burma Project International, the album contains 14 original tracks of short radio clips by Alan Clements sharing the most salient features of Burma's nonviolent revolution. Each track is accompanied by an original musical soundtrack, remixed in genres ranging from trance, world, classical, native, to hip-hop.

The compilation concludes with a reading of the preface to the newly released, revised and updated edition of the book, "The Voice of Hope — Alan Clements in Conversation with Aung San Suu Kyi."

"Burma's Revolution of the Spirit" was produced as a Free CD for the purpose of reflecting on Burma's freedom struggle and perhaps the most inspiring spiritual - political revolutions of our era. From this inspiration, it is our hope that one is moved to act - engaging in everyday revolution - using one's freedom to support the freedom of others.

The album was produced by Jeffrey Hellman and World Dharma Production and is available for free listening and free downloading now at: www.WorldDharma.com.

It is also our hope that you will send the link of this website to friends, radio stations, post in forums, blogs, and newsletters, encouraging them to download this Free Burma CD and spread the revolution - supporting Aung San Suu Kyi - the release of Burma's imprisoned Nobel peace laureate - and her call for global action supporting her country's ongoing struggle for freedom.

Thank you for caring.

Thank you for making Burma's revolution of the spirit your own.

In solidarity,

Alan Clements and Jeffrey Hellman

www.WorldDharma.com

The Art and Activism of a Life Based On Freedom